Multi-County Virtual Club Day

It’s almost time for the Multi-County Virtual Club Day! 4-H Club Day is a (virtual) event with Harvey, McPherson, and Marion County to showcase 4-H projects and demonstrate youth talents. This year, the virtual event will be hosted online via Flip Grid.

This year we will be offering NEW events including: Senior Division Interviews for 4-H Members 14+, Reels, and Online Judging Contests. The Interviews will require advanced registration!

Flip Grid Site Opens: March 8th
Flip Grid Site Closes: March 22nd
Interviews (Sr. Division): March 9th

Check out our Website for more information, examples of entries, and links to register for Club Day!

Updates to Record Keeping

The Kansas Award Portfolio (KAP’s) has been replaced by Project Report Forms starting this 4-H year. Links to the forms and a Guide to Project Recognition are available online.

Welcome to Hayley!

Hayley Whitehair will be joining the Chisholm Trail Extension District team on March 1 as the 4-H Office Professional in the Abilene Office. She is a 4-H alum from Clay County and brings lots of skills to the position. Plan to introduce yourselves and make her feel welcome!

Extension Program Alert!

Join KSRE and guest speakers virtually for a variety of topics each Thursday at 6:45 PM.

Register here to attend!

THANK YOU!

The Extension Office wishes to thank our 4-H Volunteers for their flexibility and dedication to Marion County Youth over the past year! We appreciate YOU!
