The June Meeting of the Marion County 4-H Council was called to order on Monday, June 10, 2019 at the Hillsboro United Methodist Church at 7:00 P.M. The Pledge of Allegiance and the 4-H Pledge were said. The roll call was answered by 17 leaders and members. Last meeting’s minutes were read and approved. For communications, the council was asked to sign a thank you letter that will be sent to the Flint Hills Rural Electric Cooperative for their donation of $500.00. During Treasurer’s report, the treasurer reported that the 4-H Council has a balance of $29,541.26. The Spring Beef Show has a balance of $4,056.23. For Committee Reports, Tristen provided a copy of a flyer for the 2019 Style Revue to be handed out. The Style Revue Committee also asked for any sewn or purchased clothing exhibited in the past to be temporarily donated for decorations. They ask that any donations be collected by July 8th. The Style Revue is also inviting any 4-H Alumni who participated in a Style Revue in the past to attend the Style Revue. If any alumni wishes to speak about their projects for the Style Revue, contact Tristen Cope. For the After Fair Party, it was revealed that the committee is holding a breakfast on the last day of the fair instead of a pizza party. For unfinished business, Tristen Cope announced that superintendents and assistants are still needed for the fair. If you are interested in being a superintendent or assistant, contact Tristen. The Council then moved on to new business. Tristen reported that FairEntry will open on June 24th and close on July 8th. Entries need to be submitted online. If you have any questions, contact the Extension Office. Tristen announced that this year, the Food Stand is closing at 5:00 p.m. on Friday, July 26th. The menu and prices for the Food Stand were provided in a packet given to everyone in attendance. Next, Rickey discussed the importance of the endowment fund and Marion County Development fund. He then encouraged the 4-H Council to sell raffle tickets. The Council discussed ways to advertise and sell tickets. Tristen then asked the Council if the Sweets Day date needs to be moved or if clubs were interested in helping with a Sweets Day. The Council decided to wait 2 more weeks for feedback before canceling or changing the date. The ServSafe training is free to 4-Hers. If you are helping with the Food Stand, you are encouraged to attend the ServSafe training. Next, Tristen reported that the Goessel Goal Getters, Happy Hustlers, and Peabody Achievers were selected to provide a Commissioner’s Cookie Jar at the fair this year. On July 15th, a superintendents meeting will be held at the Hillsboro United Methodist Church at 6:30. Tristen then revealed the winning design for the stall card contest. The design was given to members and leaders of the 4-H Council in attendance. The next meeting for the 4-H Council will be held September 2019 at 7:00 at the Hillsboro United Methodist Church. Ava Case moved to adjourn the meeting. Multiple people seconded. Motion passed and the meeting was adjourned at 8:08 P.M.
